

2016 Summer Season Seminars and Special Events

University of Wyoming – National Park Service Harlow Summer Seminars at the AMK Ranch

BBQ Dinner ($5+ donation) starts at 5:30 pm with a talk at 6:30 pm most Thursdays (unless otherwise noted) in the Berol Lodge at the AMK Ranch near Leeks Marina. Open to the public – Reservations not required.

- June 23 Pete Coppolillo, Working Dogs for Conservation (WD4C), Bozeman, Montana
Conservation's Best Friend: How a Bunch of Shelter Dogs Are Saving the World
- June 30 Corinna Riginos, University of Wyoming and Northern Rockies Conservation Cooperative, Jackson
Oh Deer! The Problem of Wildlife-vehicle Collisions and Roads as Barriers to Deer Migrations and Movements in Wyoming.
- July 7 Glenn Thackray, Idaho State University, Pocatello
Earthquakes, Glaciers, and the Evolution of Landscapes along the Teton Fault
- July 14 Aida Farag, U.S. Geological Survey, Jackson, and Sue Consolo-Murphy, Grand Teton National Park, Moose Assessing Aquatic Resources in Kelly Warm Springs, Grand Teton National Park: Have Native Fish Been Displaced by Non-native Aquarium Fish?
- July 21 Sarah Dewey, Wildlife Biologist, Grand Teton National Park, Moose
On the Move: Seasonal Trekking of Grand Teton Mule Deer
- July 28 Danny Dale, University of Wyoming, Laramie
Gravity Waves 100 Years after Einstein
- August 4 Andy Hansen, University of Wyoming, Laramie
Some of the Science behind Avalanche Initiation
- August 10 Special Wednesday Event: The Wyoming Festival - New Music in the Mountains: NPS Centennial Celebration Concert – 7:00 p.m. with a wine and hor d'oeuvres reception to follow. Join the world class musicians of the Wyoming Festival and composers from across the globe for an NPS Centennial Celebration Concert of brand new classical music inspired by nature and the parks.
- August 18 Robert Righter, Southern Methodist University, Dallas and Jackson
Grand Teton National Park: Past and Present Challenges
- August 21-28 Special Events to celebrate the centennial of the National Park Service and the beauty and wonder of spiders: Spiders! Interconnectedness, Innovation & Stewardship – August 21, 4-7 pm: Exhibit Opening Reception with artists at the Berol Lodge. Other exhibit events to be announced.

For further information contact the Director at (307) 543-2463 or uwnps@uwyo.edu or check www.uwyo.edu/uwnps

The UW-NPS Research Station is operated by the University of Wyoming in cooperation with Grand Teton National Park